The Harleian Society

ESTABLISHED A.D. MDCCCLXIX

Catalogue 2025

The Harleian Society was founded in 1869 for publishing manuscripts of the heraldic visitations of the counties of England and Wales and other manuscripts relating to genealogy, armoury and heraldry in the widest sense. Its volumes have always proved to be of great value to genealogists and those interested in family history. It has a world-wide subscribership.

Publications can either be obtained through annual subscription, currently £25 for individuals and £30 for institutions, or purchased individually at the prices shown, which include packing and postage by economy mail. Contact us if you wish to pay extra for standard (air) mail.

As an introductory bonus, new subscribers can choose free one of the publications still in print, but please note that Church Notes of Berkshire 1665-66 is not part of this offer.

Publications: Older volumes not shown are out of print but some historic publications may be available online through the "Internet Archive". Prices below include packing and delivery by economy mail.
